No. 47. Circular from the Government of India, in the Financial Department, dated Simla, 16th August 1877, No. 2625.

The Governor-General in Council has noticed that Local Governments and Administrations are in the habit of granting subsidiary leave for the full period of thirty days to every officer proceeding on furlough or special leave, apparently as a matter of course. His Excellency in Council accordingly invites attention to the note prefixed to Chapter VI of the Civil Leave Code which states the objects for which subsidiary leave can be granted. His Excellency in Council desires that the duration of subsidiary leave may in future be limited by the considerations defined in that note.

To the several Departments of the Government of India.
