apologizing for anything you about this exchange

I would not willingly consent to an exchange. The present orders on the subject are not applicable to the existing act, as the functions of a Registrar and Sub-Registrar are quite distinct, and the one has to hear appeals from the other; so there is no doubt sooner or later they will have to be redefined: and a return made to the old system under which we at present hold our posts. I am afraid the Treasury would hardly support from owing to the tank being full all with rags which looks exceedingly green and thriving. It is only

Dear Mr. Master

My father died in '67, leaving my mother, my some oversight in his payments to the Bank very badly off. The duty of giving her a home devolved upon me, as she has lived with men ever since.
Pray pardon my troubling you with these details, but they are necessary to explain the object with which I write. I have been in Malabar 10 years continuously, & the climate is now telling on my mother & me to such an extent as to make me conscious for a transfer. In addition to the pay of my class I draw Rs 200, Rs 100 as Currency Officer & Rs 150 as Registrar, I should lose these extra allowances if I left the District unless I could exchange with another Treasury Deputy who also draws similar allowances.

Unfortunately for me Govt decided 2 or 3 years ago that Treasury Deputys should cease to be Registrars on account occurring amongst present incumbents.
The effect of this rule is that any successor would not be Registrar & I should not be Registrar if I succeeded a man who is now Registrar. The result of my leaving Calicut would therefore be that my pay would be reduced from Rs 600 to Rs 350 - of course a serious matter to me. But if I could be allowed to exchange with another Trez Deputy, each of us retaining the post of Registrar, my loss should not be so great, although I should still lose something as this is the best paid Treasury. Mr Winscom of Coimbatore is willing to exchange with me, provided we could be allowed to retain the Registration charge. Mr Winscom draws Rs 100 as Registrar in addition to his pay, so that I should lose Rs 150 by the transfer, which 563 he would gain. Such a transfer would not be a violation of the G.O.

I have mentioned, as it would be an exchange & not a vacating of appointments.

I have written to Mr Carmichael on the subject, but as I have not the honor of being personally known to him I have felt a delicacy in troubling him with the details of my circumstances. I should feel deeply obliged if you would kindly help me in the matter. My mother cannot remain in Malabar, but the transfer would enable me to continue giving her a home.

Trusting you will excuse my troubling you at such length I remain

Yours truly

To Mr. Commissioner

Sir,

I believe Mr Winscom of Coimbatore spoke to you some months ago about our wish to exchange appointments, & I now venture to trouble you on this subject.

I have been 10 years here, & find that the climate is beginning to tell on me & also on my mother, who has lived with me ever since my father's death in '67. I am anxious therefore to exchange the climate of the Coast for that of Coimbatore if possible. I draw Rs 250 a month here in addition to the pay of my class, Rs 100 as Currency Officer & 150 as Registrar, & these allowances I should lose on leaving the District, which would be a serious matter to me.

It was decided some time ago that on vacancies occurring in Treasuries the Registrars should thereafter be held by Special Officers & not by Deputy Collectors.
Under this rule Mr Winscom & I would lose the Registration allowance on vacating our present appointments. I take the liberty of troubling you now whether to ask whether Mr Winscom & I might be allowed to exchange, & the transaction regarded as an exchange & not a revolving of appointments, which would enable us to retain the post of Registrars.
I should feel deeply obliged if you would kindly have this sanctioned, as it would enable me to continue giving my mother a home, & be also beneficial to my health.

I remain, Sir,

Yours obediently

that there is no objection to the transfer if His Grace permits it.

I will of course ascertain precisely what Whitcomb's sentiments are before any order goes out.

Yours sincerely
