Sir

In reply to the Proceedings of the Board of Revenue dated the 4th January 1877, Miscellaneous No 54, I have the honor to state that the application of C. Krishna Rao was received by the Sub Collector and transferred by him to the Collector on the 21st November 1876. It did not reach this office on that date, but went direct direct to Mr Horsfall who was on circuit. He passed an order on the 28th granting the leave; this reached the office at Madras on the 2^d December, where it was found that Government alone could grant the leave under recent orders and a Certificate of Krishna Row's eligibility was then obtained from the Treasury Deputy Collector on the 6th.

Mr Horsfall went to Madras on the 6th under orders of Government to attend a famine Conference and returned to Madras by the evening train on Saturday the 9th. The 10th was Sunday and I took charge on the 11th when there were many papers for disposal. The draft application to the Board for the leave was passed on the 12th and the fair copy
