Read Proceedings of the Madras Government, dated 14th December 1876, No. 2,032, Revenue Department:—

ABSTRACT.—Shivagunga Zemindari, Madura District.—Communicating to the Board of Revenue petition from proprietrix of —, and intimating that the Government are desirous of complying with her prayer for an extension of time in paying her peishcush for Faslis 1285 and 1286. Requesting Board to state what concession may properly be made as an act of exceptional indulgence.

Read also the following telegram from the Collector of Madura, dated 16th January 1877:—

“Shevagungah Zemindar paid Rupees 10,000, December.”

THE Board find from the Demand, Collection, and Balance Statements that the RS.

Arrears	1,81,050	including land-cess, and that Rs. 3,76,110
Total ...	5,05,198	were paid up to the end of November, leaving a balance of Rupees 1,29,088, of which 54,088 Rupees should according to promise have been paid in December to reduce the balance to Rupees 75,000. The Board are, however, informed by telegraph that Rupees 10,000 only were paid in that month, so that Rupees 1,19,088 were outstanding on the 1st January 1877. The current kists are shown in the margin.

2. From the above it will be seen that unless some payments are made the year will close with arrears equal to half the rental of the estate, and that the Zemindari's promises are not to be fully relied on.

3. In consideration, however, of the exceptional character of the season the Board do not object to her first request being complied with, and (current kists being suspended) that she be allowed to pay up the balance outstanding on 1st January by the end of April 1877. If she does this the further concession asked for, as to postponement of demands for the current Fasli 1286, might be allowed; but monthly instalments as to which the Collector should report should be insisted on, and the arrangement should not interfere with the kists payable in November and December 1877 on account of Fasli 1287.
