From J. D. H. Sharp Esq.
Asst. Collector of Sirmur District.

To C. A. Walton Esq.
Asst. Secretary to the Board of Revenue
Madras.

Sir,
With reference to their Proc. of the 1st Instant No. 358, I have the honor to request that the Board will be pleased to inform me whether I am correct in my surmise that the return of grain called for in their previous Proc. of the 10th July 1877, No. 320, should embrace only such grain as has been purchased for and issued to coolie employment on Relief works in payment of their wages.

Sirmur and Civil Office I have recd
