(4.) One Clerk on Rupees 20, one Gumastah on Rupees 15, and two Peons on Rupees 7 each under Mr. J. H. Cook, Special Assistant on Famine Duty (vide also my letter, No. 14, of 9th January 1877.)

2. Probably applications will be received from other parts of the district for permission to entertain similar additional establishments ; and to save correspondence and delay in applying for the Board's sanction in each case, I have the honor to request a general permission to entertain from Famine Funds such additional establishment of Revenue Inspectors as may be needed in connection with the famine relief operations.

From A. WEDDERBURN, Esq., Collr. of Coimbatore, to H. E. STOKES, Esq., Acting Secretary to the Board of Revenue, dated Coimbatore, 24th January 1877, No. 38.

With reference to my letter of 18th instant, No. 27, asking sanction for the Seventeen Revenue Inspectors, two Clerks, and employment of additional hands as per two Peons under Mr. Cook, Special Assistant. margin, I have the honor to state that I shall be prepared to employ the hands from the Revenue Settlement Office, whom Mr. Puckle has offered in case of need.
