Famine Relief.

Read the following paper:—

No. 153. From Major C. B. E. SMITH, C.S.I., First Assistant Resident, Hyderabad, to the Chief Secretary to Government, dated Hyderabad Residency, 12th September 1877, No. 1736-P.

With reference to previous correspondence ending with this office telegram, dated 27th ultimo, regarding famine-stricken people from British Territory who have migrated into His Highness the Nizam's Territory and vice versa, I am desired by the Resident to enclose, for the information of His Grace the Governor in Council, No. 2743, dated 6th September 1877, with enclosure. English translation of a communication since received from His Highness' Minister on the subject intimating the steps taken for bringing back all subjects of His Highness the Nizam who may have emigrated into the Madras Presidency.

ENCLOSURE No. 1.

[Translation.]

From His Highness the Nizam's Minister, to the Resident, Hyderabad, dated 6th September 1877, No. 2743.

In continuation of my letter, No. 2241, dated 27th July last, I beg to enclose for your perusal a Rúbékár from the Famine Relief Committee together with a copy of a Rúbékár from the Taluqdar of Lingsugar District regarding the recall of famine-stricken subjects of this Government from British Territory, and to remark that from the correspondence it appears that application has been made for such individuals as have migrated into the Madras Presidency.

NOTE.—The Rúbékár from the Famine Relief Committee is simply a forwarding letter.

ENCLOSURE No. 1 in No. 1.

PURPORT of a Rúbékár from the First Taluqdar of Lingsugar District, No. 876—143, General Famine, dated 14th Shaban, 1294 Hijiri.

Acknowledges receipt of telegram from the Secretary to the Famine Relief Committee directing the recall from the Madras Presidency of such of His Highness' famine-stricken subjects as may have migrated there. Reports that previous to the receipt of these orders he had proceeded by rail from Raichore to Gangawati passing on his way through Bellary expressly with the object of bringing away such people, and inquired at the poor-house at that place but did not find any of them there. From thence he proceeded to Kamptee and there found a few who, on being advised to come away, stated that as the members of their family were all scattered about they would collect them together, and if two days time were allowed them, and arrangements made for ferrying them across the river, they would all return in His Highness' dominions. He then went to Gangawati and directed the Tahsildar to get away from Kamptee all famine-stricken subjects of the Nizam's Government paying for their travelling expenses and passage across the river. From the Tahsildar's report it is found that some 144 persons were in this way brought from Kamptee poor-house, three of whom were admitted in the Kanakgherrie poor-house, the remainder being set to work on the roads. He further instructed the Tahsildar to proceed to Bellary, Hospett, &c., and bring away all such people, and has provided him with Rupees 50 for payment of the expenses on this account. Promises to report further if necessary on the subject. Further states that he addressed the Collector of Bellary on the subject inquiring what the number of such immigrants was, and proposing to arrange for their being sent back, who replied that he had instructed the Tahsildar of Hospett regarding their being recalled.
