Coimbatore collector's office 22 September 1877.
Sept. 23rd Sept "

From, A. Wedderburn Esquire, Collector of Coimbatore.

To, C. G. Master Esquire,
Secretary to Government
Revenue Department

Sir, Madras

My Treasury Deputy Collector Mr Winscom, having been transferred to Calicut, he should, under existing orders, (vide Board's Circular order XXXV of 1874), deliver over charge immediately, and I should make such arrangements, as are necessary, till the arrival of his successor, Mr Cole.

2. I have the honor to point out, that the present circumstances of this District, are so abnormal, owing to the large expenditure going forward, in all the Talugs, on account of the famine, that the Treasury cannot be left, without the attendance of an experienced officer, and that all my Subordinates are so fully employed, at present, that there are none, whom I can spare for the purpose. I therefore propose to retain Mr Winscom at his post, till Mr Cole arrives, and request that Government will be good enough to Sanction this arrangement, and inform the Accountant General of the same.

I have the honor to be
Sir,
Your most obedient Servant

Memulaw
Collector.
