Proceedings of the Madras Government, Revenue Department, 10th February 1877.

No. 318. Read the following letter from R. H. HOLLINGBERRY, Esq., Assistant Secretary to the Government of India, (Financial Department,) to the Hon. W. HUDLESTON, Chief Secretary to the Government of Madras, dated Fort William, 29th January 1877, No. 480:—

In forwarding the accompanying copy of a report* by the Comptroller-General on a summary of the Collectors' replies to questions put to them by the Board on 31st May 1875, I am directed to invite the attention of the Government of Madras to paragraph 4 respecting the very large stock of stamps in the custody of the Treasurer.

ENCLOSURE No. 1.

From E. F. HARRISON, Esq., Comptroller-General, to the Secretary to the Government of India, Financial Department, dated Calcutta, 17th January 1877, No. 1,419.

I HAVE the honor to inform you that I have just received from the Accountant-General, Madras, a printed paper giving a summary of the Collectors' replies to questions put to them by the Board on 31st May 1875.

2. There are a few matters worthy of note.
3. The Collectors seem not to understand their duties under the Coinage Act, as most report that they return the pieces to tenderers; the attention of the Accountant-General is being drawn to this point, and he is further being reminded that petty remittances to the Mint Master should be avoided.
4. The stock of stamps in the custody of the Treasurer seems in some cases very large, in four cases it exceeds a lakh of rupees, and in five more exceeds half a lakh.
5. In one or two instances the supply of minimum weights seems imperfect.
6. In some instances the question put by the Board has been misunderstood, the misunderstanding in case of one question shows that the important distinction between a Letter of Credit and a Credit Order is overlooked.
7. In two instances the spare forms of Money Orders are kept by the Treasurer.
8. And, lastly, in two instances the report to the Board is signed by the Treasury Deputy Collector instead of the Collector; it is of no value only as it gives the result of an independent personal examination of the Treasury, and the work of the Treasury Deputy Collector.
9. A copy of this report is being forwarded to the Accountant-General.

No. 319. ORDER THEREON, 10th February 1877, No. 610.
