PROCEEDINGS of the MADRAS GOVERNMENT.

READ the following ~~letter~~ Proceedings of the Board of Revenue 9/8 October 1877 N° 13880.

Order thereon 13th October 1877, N° 1364

The Proceedings of the Board of Revenue, with enclosures, will be forwarded in original (to be returned) to the Government Astronomer for such explanation as he may have to offer in respect to the extreme delay complained of in the supply of rain gauges.

2. It is observed that the Government Astronomer was called upon for "early reports" in G.O. dated 29th March 1875, N° 385, on the delay in supplying rain-gauges for salt stations in the Nellore District, but that he has not yet furnished the report, although 2 years and 6 months have elapsed.

3. The Government expect to receive Mr. Pogson's explanation to the present reference by the 20th instant. (True Extract.)
