Board of Revenue

Madras

Dated Chittoor 2^d October 1877.

Sir,

In paragraph 2 of their Proceedings dated 16th April 1877 N^o 1685, the Board state that there is no objection to Mr Masters proposal to formally transfer, to the Accountant Department, a clerk (on Rs 15) on the strength of the Vernacular Correspondence Department, but doing duty in the Account branch of my Office, I have the honor to enquire whether I can carry out the transfer by changing the designation of "clerk" into "Accountant" and entering accordingly in the Pay lists of ~~you~~ sent to the Accountant

Accountant General.

2. The Government should probably authorize the Accountant General to admit the alteration, and if so I request the Board will be pleased to move the Government to do so.

I have &c
(Signed) J. G. Skorsfall
Offe Collector
Gaujam

The Collector says carry out the transfer by the alteration of the designation of Clerk into that of Accountant with reference para 3 of Board's Proceedings recorded in G. O. dated 12th June 1877 N^o 1958. The Board do not consider it necessary to trouble Government with a further reference.
