No 806

From

J. J. Price Esq.

Ry Collector

To

H. E. Stokes Esq.

Secretary to the

Board of Revenue
Madras.

Sir

Government having in their order Pension Department
No 591 dated 30th ultimo sanctioned the grant of a pension of Rs 100 per annum to Copparapu Venkatakrishna late Tahsildar of Lakshmi Madaga, I have the honor to submit the following nominations to fill the vacancy thus created.

I. Varanasi Venolia Row

Tahsildar of Pulivendla
to be Tahsildar of Lakshma-Nadugu

II. Hussur Soobha Row Tahsildar of Proddatur. And acting Temporary Dy Collector to be Tahsildar of Pulivendla.

III. Combalaiah Aravamudan
Aiyangar Tahsildar of Sidhant And acting Tahsildar of — Proddatur to be Tahsildar of Proddatur.

IV. Angarab Ramiah Taluk
Theristadar of Pulivendla & acting Tahsildar of Sidhant to be Tahsildar of Sidhant.

2. V. Venkoba Row has been a permanent Tahsildar since June 1875 & during the time that he was in Pulivendla & since he has taken charge of Lakshma-Nadugu has done good famine work. He is active and intelligent and is certainly the best of those Tahsildars of the District who could be promoted to the vacancy.

3. I suggest the transfer of H. Soobha Row to the Pulivendla Taluk as it is not in at present at any rate & likely that he will revert to his permanent post and because I have seen that Pulur Soobha Row who was acting for him in the Proddatur Taluk was utterly unfit, setting aside his deafness
& the unsatisfactory way
in which he managed Famine matters for so troublesome a Taluk.

4. C. Aravamudan Aiyangar
the officer whom I recommended for this Tahsildari has been long in the Police and attained the highest grade that he could in it. He is active, determined, well up in the Law & intelligent & is not likely as P. Soobha Row did, to allow others to get the upper hand of him. Aravamuntharayar worked well and zealously during the time that he was in charge of the Madanapally Taluk which was in great disorder when he took it up. He has served through the greater part of the Famine viz from March last.

5. Angarah Ramiak has long been a Taluk Sheristadar and has acted as Tahsildar of Sedhoat since July 1876. He has worked satisfactorily and will during the Famine and though not what I should call a brilliant officer, is hardworking & trustworthy. He is a little lame but this does not interfere with his riding or walking. I think that he deserves promotion & that he will do very well as Tahsildar of Sedhoat.

6. Both he & Aravamuntharayar do not belong to the district.

7. I enclose the Service books of V. Venkoba Row & Angarah Ramiak & a copy of that of C. Aravamuntharayar.

8. The delay in making this reference has arisen from the Subcollector having lost or mislaid the Service book of the last named officer which was sent to him for entry of a remark. As it can not be found I have decided not to wait any longer.

Abraham the Ayengar appears to have taken a copy of the Book before sending it and it is this which I forward.
Mr. Stuart has been requested to make further search for the original.

I have re-

The sanction of Govt. is requested for the appointment of A.
Ramesh to be Tahsildar of Sedhont. The proposed transfers do not require confirmation.
