Most Respected Sir.

I most humbly beg to inform your honor that I have despatched all the rice bags that were in Juwallaie Talug Cutchery and in accordance to your letter of the 31st January 1877 I went to the Juwallaie Station Master with 100 Coots to clear the bags, whom reply told me to go and bring only of the Talug Juwanatah and so I went to the Talug Sheristadar and requested him to send a Juwanatah and on my request he sent a Juwanatah named Chengier.

after taking him to the Station Master who tells me to pay the demurrage. On that I have requested him very much saying that the Bags are eating away with white ants and if any rain pours the rice will be damaged and so you better pass at least 3000 bags in the meanwhile I will write to my superiors and whatever order I get I will act accordingly to it and with all my above request but never complied with. I therefore earnestly request any claim for demurrage as none has been made but this of course can be settled hereafter. I have long since requested the Takeldar an Mepri Arbuthnot & Co to erect a temporary shed near the station and have the Collector of North Arcot on the same subject. I cannot state the spot and cannot make the necessary arrangements for this and as it is impossible that the bags can be cleared as soon as they arrive I trust that this claim will be waived.
