Proceedings of the Madras Government, Revenue Department, 22nd February 1877.

No. 661. Read the following Proceedings of the Board of Revenue, dated 16th February 1877, No. 660:—

Read the following letter from A. J. STUART, Esq., Acting Collector of Tinnevely, to H. E. STOKES, Esq., Acting Secretary to the Board of Revenue, dated Sattur, 8th February 1877, No. H:—

I HAVE the honor to forward copy of a letter of instruction to the division officers, which I hope will meet the approval of the Board. I do not propose to exceed the amount at credit of the fund for the service of process, but it is very necessary to convince the ryots who can pay that they must pay something, and when their refusal is general the ordinary staff for enforcing the recovery of kists is quite unequal to coping with the occasion.

ENCLOSURE No. 1.

From A. J. STUART, Esq., Acting Collector of Tinnevely, to the Division Officer of Tinnevely, dated Sattur, 8th February 1877.

It has come to my notice that in many villages of the distressed taluqs the ryots, even those who can afford to pay something, refuse to pay any part of their kists, and that collections are at a standstill from want of sufficient means to enforce payment, chiefly owing to the limited number of Amins available for service of process.

I have the honor to authorize the temporary employment of an extra staff of Amins in the distressed taluqs, the number to be fixed by you with reference to the surplus collections at the credit of the Process Service Fund, from which these men are paid. I think it will be sufficient if they are entertained for six weeks or two months. I would recommend that they be employed in serving the necessary process and making attachments of the property of the richer ryots only in each village, the amount demanded being regulated by the Tahsildar under your orders with reference to the state of the village and the proposals for remissions, copies of which are now being sent you. I think that where the principal ryots have been made to pay, the rest will follow suit without special pressure.
