Proceedings of the Madras Government, Revenue Department,
22nd February 1877.

Famine Relief.

No. 689. Read the following letter from Lieutenant G. E. MONEY, Central India Horse, on Special Famine Duty, Madanapully, to the Hon. D. F. CARMICHAEL, Secretary to Government, Revenue Department, dated Cuddapah, 12th February 1877, No. 1:—

I have the honor to state that the enclosed letter, under cover, to Captain E. A. Money was forwarded to me from Gooty this morning.

2. The cover was opened by me in order to see to whom to return it.

3. The telegrams in this letter refer to me and not to Captain E. A. Money of the Frontier Force.

4. Captain E. A. Money, when I left Delhi, had been ordered to the frontier, and was not coming to this Presidency. On arrival at Gooty on January 26th I received instructions from Government to proceed to Nellore.

5. I telegraphed on same date to Mr. Hudleston, Chief Secretary to Government, requesting permission, as I was aware neither of the officers appointed to this district were coming, to be allowed to proceed to Cuddapah instead of Nellore.

6. I received permission from Mr. Hudleston by telegram.

7. I accordingly proceeded to Cuddapah, reported myself to Mr. Price, the Collector, who sent me to this sub-division under the Sub-Collector. I would state that I have returned two or three letters directed to Captain E. A. Money. He is, I believe, at present on the frontier.

No. 689-A. ORDER THEREON, 22nd February 1877, No. 786-A.

Miscellaneous.

RECORDED. Lieutenant G. E. Money will remain in the Cuddapah District.
