Proceedings of the Madras Government, Revenue Department,
23rd February 1877.

Famine Relief.

No. 741. Read the following letter from J. F. PRICE, Esq., Acting Collector of Cuddapah, to J. H. GARSTIN, Esq., Additional Secretary to Government, Revenue Department, Fort St. George, dated Pullampet, 16th February 1877, Extra No. 153 :—

REFERRING to your telegram of the 13th instant, I have the honor to state that I very much require maistries.

2. I will take fifty at once, if you can find me that number, of even fairly competent men.

3. The salaries offered range from Rs. 8 to Rs. 20 per mensem, according to qualifications. Men must know how to read and write Telugu. Any one who does not give satisfaction is liable to be at once turned off.

No. 742. ORDER THEREON, 23rd February 1877, No. 799.

Miscellaneous.

IT is with the utmost difficulty that fifteen or twenty persons of doubtful qualifications as maistries have been got together, and these are all wanted by each of four or five Collectors.

2. It is simply impossible to supply Mr. Price with fifty maistries at present, but his wants will be borne in mind.
