No. 803.

No. 749.

To

C. E. BERNARD, Esq., C.S.I.

Miscellaneous.

SIR,—I am directed to acknowledge receipt of your letter No. 75, of the 14th instant, and in reply to state that the question of thoroughly scrutinizing the expenditure on famine relief, and establishing a proper system of audit of the accounts, has for some time past engaged the anxious attention of the Madras Government, who deputed, about a month ago, a Member of the Revenue Board and a skilful Accountant to frame a set of audit rules for general guidance. These, after careful examination, were approved, with some trifling modifications, by the Madras Government, on the 5th instant, and will be submitted to the scrutiny of the Account Department before being issued, in view to the system adopted being put in force in such a manner as will satisfy the requirements of that department.

I have the honor to be,
Sir,
Your most obedient servant,

(Signed) J. H. GARSTIN,
Additional Secretary to Government.
