Famine Relief.

No. 154. Proceedings of Government, 8th February 1877, No. 461.

The resolution of this Government, at the instance of the Government of India, to adopt, as far as possible, the payment of relief wages in cash, and not to purchase further Government Stores of grain, has rendered unnecessary the retention of the important services which Messrs. Arbuthnot and Co. have given and were prepared to continue as Government Brokers.

2. This was communicated to Messrs. Arbuthnot and Co. on 5th January 1877, who were then formally released from the previously accepted obligation to abstain from trade on their own account.

3. The Governor in Council avails himself of the termination of these transactions to offer his thanks to Messrs. Arbuthnot and Co. for their ready assistance, and to record the appreciation by Government of the thoroughly efficient and satisfactory manner in which they executed the confidential business entrusted to them.
