Talag Thristadar in his place on probation.

2. I Ramakrishnayya Pantulu has not passed all the prescribed Test; but I have nevertheless been obliged to appoint him under the circumstances detailed in my letter dated 7th January 1873, No 45, on which the ment were passed.

permitting permitting the appointment of unpassed men to the post of Talag Thristadar in this District. The question was mooted in my letter of the Collector

Submitted for the favorable consideration

Consideration and orders of Government.

The orders of Govt 10 Feb 73 No 50 quoted by the Collector cannot be taken as conveying a general authority for the employment of unpassed men as Taluk Sheristadars in the Berhampore and Gurnaur Taluqs, but in consideration of the peculiar circumstances of these two Taluqs, the bulk of the population being Dongas, the Board recommend that the Collector may be authorised to employ unpassed men as Taluk Sheristadars in the absence of passed Candidates, on the clear understanding

826 understanding that the latter are to have the preference if their services can be procured.

It will be observed that a similar concession has been granted regarding the Sub Magistrates employed in the Jaypore country in Vizagapatam
