No. 77. Read the following Proceedings of the Court of Wards, dated 17th February 1877, No. 668 :—

Read the following letter from W. F. GRAHAME, Esq., Acting Principal Assistant Collector, to C. G. MASTER, Esq., Collector of Ganjam, dated Raghunadhapore, 18th December 1876, No. 306 :—

REFERRING to paragraph 2 of the Proceedings of the Court of Wards, No. 2,023, dated 9th August 1876, communicated to me with your foot-note, dated 21st September 1876, I have the honor to inform you that the two daughters of the Parlakimedy Zemindar learned Oriya under Appanna Patnaik. The guardian has reported that they both read and write Oriya, and are acquainted with the simple rules of arithmetic. Each of them commenced the alphabet at the age of five, and continued to read under Appanna Patnaik till she had reached her tenth year. At the age of ten, they both ceased reading with the teacher, as they could not read with a man after that age. The guardian has reported that, according to the custom among Zemindars, the girls were not allowed to appear in public after they attained their eleventh year and now read by themselves in the Rani's apartments. The eldest daughter is now fifteen years old and the second daughter eleven years old.

No. 514.

SUBMITTED to the Court of Wards with reference to the latter part of paragraph 2 of their Proceedings, dated 9th August last, No. 2,023.

Miscellaneous.

As the estate is a very thriving one and in possession of large surplus funds, it is for consideration whether an English Governess should not be secured for these children, as in the case of the Ramnad female minors.

2. Inquiry should be quietly made as to how far the arrangement would be acceptable to the family.
