Proceedings of the Madras Government, Revenue Department, 2nd March 1877.

Famine Relief.

No. 92-A. Read the following Proceedings of the Board of Revenue, dated 24th February 1877:—

Read the following letter from A. WEDDERBURN, Esq., Collector of Coimbatore, to H. E. STOKES, Esq., Acting Secretary to the Board of Revenue, dated Coimbatore, 15th February 1877, No. 63.

WITH reference to the Board's Proceedings, No. 336, of 27th January 1877, I have employed thirteen hands from the Settlement Department and twelve from the Revenue Survey, and have applied for three more men, accustomed to field-work, from the Revenue Survey for supervision of relief-works in Palladum Taluq. This will render the employment of additional Revenue Inspectors unnecessary.

2. In my letter printed with the above Proceedings, I applied for an establishment, consisting of one clerk on Rs. 20, one clerk on Rs. 15, and two peons on Rs. 7 each, for Mr. Cook, Special Assistant at Oodumulpettah. This establishment has been supplied from the Settlement Department; but Mr. Cook does not find the first clerk, from the Settlement Department, suitable for the office-work under him, and urges that a new hand entertained in anticipation of the Board's sanction be retained. I enclose a copy of Mr. Cook's letter, and request the Board's favorable orders thereon. The clerk from the Settlement Office can be employed in the supervision of labor.

ENCLOSURE No. 1.

From J. H. COOK, Esq., Special Assistant in charge of State Relief Works, Coimbatore, to A. WEDDERBURN, Esq., Collector of Coimbatore, dated Oodumulpettah, 4th February 1877, No. 18.

I HAVE the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your endorsement * on a copy of the Board's Proceedings, of 27th January 1877, regarding the entertainment of new hands, and respectfully beg to point out that it would appear, from the latter part of the above Proceedings that the Board have not actually declined to sanction the entertainment of my head clerk, but merely observe that they await "report of the result, which will probably render the entertainment of any new men unnecessary."

2. In my former letter† I mentioned to you that my head clerk, who has been acting for different times in your Office, has, by careful attention to his duties, proved himself very useful, and has rendered himself of great assistance to me.

3. The deputy writer sent down from the Settlement Office does not appear so fit a man, and, as I have said before, I can find work for him elsewhere.

4. I would, therefore, again respectfully request you will get sanction for the retainment of my head clerk for the present, or, at all events, till a better man can be found.

5. I may point out that you have requested me to undertake the supervision of Dharapuram Town, which will entail the keeping and submission of accounts and reports, and for which it is necessary that a man acquainted with the works should be my head clerk.

6. The pay of my head clerk is only Rupees 20, which I trust the Board will not object to sanction.
