Famine Relief.

No. 168. Read the following letter from J. F. PRICE, Esq., Acting Collector of Cuddapah, to J. H. GARSTIN, Esq., Additional Secretary to Government, Fort St. George, dated Maddanapalli, 7th February 1877, extra No. 36:—

I HAVE the honor to request that I may be informed by whom and at what rate the famine and travelling allowances of Lieutenant G. E. Money, on special duty in this district, who reported himself to me on the 26th ultimo, are to be paid.

2. I have received no instructions upon these points.

3. Lieutenant Money has personally intimated to me that his regimental pay will be drawn by his regiment, the Central India Horse.

No. 169. ORDER THEREON, 6th March 1877, No. 943.

Miscellaneous.

THE Collector of Cuddapah will be informed that Lieutenant Money's extra allowances will be 200 or 300 Rs. a month, in addition to his military pay, according as he is under or over five years' service.

2. With respect to his travelling allowances the same principle which applied in Bengal will apply now, that is, the local extra tentage and travelling rules will be applicable to Lieutenant Money and to all the other Military and Covenanted Civil Officers from Bengal; those under ten years' service drawing at Head Assistant's and those above ten years' service at Sub-Collector's rates.
