Proceedings of the Madras Government, Revenue Department, 6th March 1877.

Famine Relief.

No. 173-A.

Read the following Proceedings of the Board of Revenue, dated 1st March 1877, Miscellaneous No. 3,025 :—

Read again Board's Proceedings, dated 20th February 1877, Miscellaneous No. 2,511, communicating to Collector of Bellary G.O., dated 15th February 1877, No. 687.

As officers from Bengal continue to be sent to Gooty, the Board suggest to Government that arrangements should be made for their reception at the military camp there. There is a Commissariat Serjeant and staff there, and tents always standing, besides a rest-house. Arrangements could easily be made to accommodate and provide with food officers of all classes arriving there. At present, many of the officers arriving at Gooty are obliged to go on to Bellary, and throw themselves on the hospitality of the Collector, whose house has, for months past, been perpetually crowded with guests.
