Proceedings of the Board of Revenue.
Dated 28 February 1897.
Read the following:

From ^{Secy.} A. Wedderburn Esquire
Collector of Cuddalore

To H. S. Stokes Esquire Secretary to the Board of Revenue, Madras.

Sir
With reference to your telegram dated 23rd inst., requesting me to report the total Revenue outlay up to date and to apply for more funds wanted, I have the honor to report that the by fund work is works up to the last week ending 17th inst. was Rs 108.15, Miscellaneous outlay i.e., purchase of tools and payment for survey &c.

Wm. H. Stokes
23/11/97

Rs 5360; I expect that amount Rs 10,000 may have been spent since the 17th instant, increasing the actual disbursements to Rs 15000 in round numbers; the weekly reports are due tomorrow and 2nd following days, and the actual total outlay will be ascertained by Tuesday next and reported. The amount drawn by the District and Relief Officers is up to date aggregated Rs 186,900.
As regards more funds needed, the sanction already approved by the Board of Revenue aggregated Rs 381,900, and I expect that another 5 lakhs or thereabouts may be made available. I have to

The Collector evidently takes the total cost of projected relief works according to lists sent in by him, as having actually been placed at his disposal, but this is not the case. A lakh of rupees will now be sanctioned as a lump sum.

Proceedings of the Madras Government, Revenue Department.
6th March 1877.

Famine Relief.

No. 186-A. Read the following Proceedings of the Board of Revenue, dated 28th February 1877, No. 927:—

Read the following letter from A. WEDDERBURN, Esq., Collector of Coimbatore, to H. E. STOKES, Esq., Secretary to the Board of Revenue, dated 24th February, 1877, No. 39.

With reference to your telegram, dated 23rd instant, requesting me to report the total famine outlay up to date and to apply for more funds wanted, I have the honor to report that the expenditure on works up to the last week, ending 17th instant, was Rupees 1,08,116, miscellaneous outlay, i.e., purchase of tools and payment for survey,* &c., Rupees 5,360. I expect that about Rupees 15,000 may have been spent since the 17th instant, increasing the actual disbursements to Rupees 1,30,000 in round numbers. The weekly reports are due to-morrow and two following days, and the actual total outlay will be ascertained by Tuesday next and reported. The amount drawn by the divisional and relief officers, &c., up to date aggregates Rupees 1,85,904.

2. As regards more funds wanted the sanctions already approved by the Board of Revenue aggregate Rupees 3,31,950, and I request that credits to that extent may be made available.

The Collector's statement of the total amount of projected relief works, with lists sent in by him, as having actually been placed at his disposal, but this is not the case. A lakh of rupees will now be sanctioned as a lump grant.
