Proceedings of the Board of Revenue

Dated 9th April 1870

Read the following:

No 135

From. F. R. H. Sharpe Esqr.

Asst Collector of Land Revt.

To, A. Mylam Esqr.

Officiating Secretary to the Board of Revenue: Madras.

Sir,

At the instance of the late

Special Assistant Collector Mr Vence

I have the honor to request that the sanction of Government may be obtained for the exemption of G. Varadarasa Nay

Cattl 2d Grumaldah in the Cuddapah

Salary from passing the Grumaldah Test

Examination

Examination.

2. This individual entered the service of Government in February 1857 or 2 years before the General Test Examination Rules came into force and is one of the servants thereon out by the introduction of Sir Colly's scheme of Revised Salary Establishments. Subsequently he held temporarily the offices of Settlement Gumastah Chedambrapuram temporarily Salary on Rs12 from 1st August 1860 to 31st December 1860 Rs20 on Rs12 from 1st January to 30th June 1861 Station Cutcherry office on Rs12 from 1st September to 31st October 1863 Taliyar Gumastah Chavady from 11th October to 31st July 1864 August 1864 when he obtained again an appointment on the permanent Establishment.

3. In August 1877 he was appointed to act as second Gumastah in the Cutcha Sale Salary on a salary of Rs20 during the absence of the permanent incumbent on Salary thereinafter of Vellapuram. to. Objections had been taken by the Treasury Department to the payment of his salary as 2d Gumastah owing to the fact that he had not had 5 years service prior to 1859 a condition necessary under G.O. dated 28th July 1860. No 1101 to his being appointed to a post with a salary of Rs20 or upwards, but this difficulty has been got over by Government (Vide G.O. No 28 dated 10th January 1878 Finance Department). leaving sanctioned payment of the salaries of persons entertained in Service Establishments notwithstanding they had not passed the General Test Examinations.

5. Vaudavan Row is said to be an efficient public servant and in consideration of this fact as well as of his long service and good character I beg to support the recommendations of the Special Assistant Collector that the Examination rules be relaxed released on his case papers by reason of his being promoted to situations with salaries of Rs 20 and upwards without passing the General Test.
