Proceedings of the Board

Dated 19th April 1907

Read the following:

No 1095

From

Larnis Gyase Esq.

Collector of St. John

To

C. A. Galtow Esq.

Secretary to the Board of Revenue

Madras

Sir,

V. J. Doraswami Mudali

Subudhar of St. John Taluk, was granted three months' privilege leave on Medical Certificate from 1st December last. On the expiration of the said leave he again applied for 15 months' sick leave on Medical Certificate (herewith forwarded) & it has been allowed to him in anticipations of formal sanction. The

Subudhar

ing declared his on with his work at state of his health.

2. I have the honor, accordingly to submit his applications for the order of the Board of Revenue. The applicant is eligible under the rules to the leave applied for.

Submitted for the same.

Min of Government. The Calcutta does not appear to have joined his appointment on the expiration of the privilege leave and if so the whole of the absence will have to be treated as leave pro medical Certificate. Vide Section 15 Supplement 3 of the Civil Leave Code

2. A regular by the Treasury on regarding the Calcutta by for the leave should have been submitted. But from his endorsement on the original application it appears that the latter is submitted to the leave.
