GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.

REVENUE DEPARTMENT.

31st July 1878, No. 1,206.

Read again letter from R. BROUGH SMYTH, Esq., Mining Engineer, dated 29th July 1878, recorded in G.O., dated 29th July 1878, No. 1,194.

No. 412.

ORDER THEREON, 31st July 1878, No. 1,206.

Miscellaneous.

The Accountant-General will be requested to advise on the first and third inquiries. It may be the simplest plan to give Mr. Smyth a fixed daily allowance to cover all expenses, and this during residence in Wynad might be fixed at Rs. 10 per diem, the amount drawn by the Assistant Superintendent of Police in that division while travelling.

* G.O., 29th July 1878, No. 1,194.

2. The Commissioner of the Nilgiris has already* been authorized to advance Rs. 500 to Mr. Smyth.

3. In regard to questions 4 and 5, it will be for Mr. Smyth to disburse whatever he may consider necessary for the purposes of the duty on which he is engaged. Obviously labor must be employed, and the Accountant-General will be desired to arrange for a contingent allowance of Rs. 250 to be placed at Mr. Smyth's disposal, and will further furnish him with the necessary instructions for accounting for and replenishing this allowance.

4. Copies of the maps referred to in the last question will be supplied to Mr. Smyth.

(True Extract.)

(Signed) C. G. MASTER,
Secretary to Government.

To the Accountant-General.
