GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.
REVENUE DEPARTMENT.

7th August 1878, No. 1,255.

Read the following paper :—

No. 92. From J. STURROCK, Esq., Acting Sub-Secretary to the Board of Revenue, to C. G. MASTER, Esq., Secretary to Government, Revenue Department, dated 21st June 1878, No. 1,717.

In paragraph 6 of their Proceedings, recorded with G.O., dated 24th April 1878, No. 614, the Court of Wards remarked that they would endeavour to secure the services of a European tutor for the minor Zemindars of Nuzvid on a salary not exceeding Rupees 500 per mensem. In this end, they have been unsuccessful, the only eligible gentleman they could hear of having declined to accept the appointment after personal inquiries on the spot. Indeed, it is no easy matter to secure the services of a person possessing the qualifications in some degree indispensable for the post. The Court have decided that on many accounts it is desirable that the Minor should be educated, for the present at any rate, at Nuzvid. The tutor who undertakes the charge must be a man of some experience of native life and of practical instruction, and of character and position that will command the amount of respect and influence in a place and society where family intrigues may otherwise become very embarrassing. Instruction of course must not be lost sight of, but the Court desire to engage one who is capable of being more than a mere schoolmaster, and who may be expected to have some success in the broader education of the Minor and his brothers, and in the formation of intelligent manly characters.

2. The Court came to the conclusion that a man possessing the requisite qualifications was most likely to be found in the Staff Corps, the fact, of course, being recognized that considerably higher allowances than at first proposed must be offered to secure the services of a suitable officer. After inquiry they placed themselves in communication with Captain H. B. Nangle at present Garrison Instructor at Coonoor, and learned that on the expiry of his present term of service as Garrison Instructor (about the 22nd August) he will be willing to take up the appointment on a salary of Rupees 700 per mensem, with pensionary contribution and free quarters, it being understood that he will be at liberty to resign at any time after becoming a Major should he so desire. The Court are decidedly of opinion that the salary proposed is not more than will be well laid out in retaining the services of an officer of Captain Nangle's peculiar experience in instruction and of his general high character and attainments. The finances of the estate are ample, and if the results anticipated by the arrangement are fairly realized better expenditure could not be made.

3. I am therefore directed to request that the Government will be so good as to make the necessary application to the Military authorities to have Captain Nangle's services placed at their disposal for employment under the Court of Wards on the expiry of his term of service as Garrison Instructor.

No. 93. ORDER THEREON, 7th August 1878, No. 1,255.

Miscellaneous.

THE Governor in Council is precluded, from complying with the request with which the foregoing letter concludes, as it has already been determined not to ask His Excellency the Commander-in-Chief for the services of Captains and Subalterns for Civil employ.

Sir
I have the honor to forward the accompanying application for Lieut Nangle of the Battalion under my Command for permission to serve as a probationer in the Madras Staff Corps.

I am unable to express too strongly the very high opinion I have formed of this Officer during the six years he has been under my observation. Nothing could exceed the zeal and ability with which as an Officer his duties have been performed, and his high principle, strong common sense, and first rate capacity for business have gained him the respect and esteem of both Officers and men of his Regiment.

My dear Nangle

I am sorry to tell you that the Comm^d Chief has decided not to carry out Lord Napier's intention of reappointing Garrison Instructors who might be recommended for further employment on the expiration of their 5 years tenure.

Had this not been the case I should have recommended your re-employment in the strongest terms not only from the conspicuous ability you have always shown and the marked success of your classes which has so frequently been brought to notice by the examiners but also from the zealous and conscientious manner in which I have always remarked you performed your work & which made me feel that my inspection of your classes was almost an unnecessary formality.

I hope you will apply for the Q^d Mr General's Department for which I conceive you are well fitted as being one of the best Military

Draftsmen & Surveyors in the Army and I say this with more opportunity of judging than most other Officers possess. I shall consider it my duty before I leave India to ask General Pitt to bring to Sir Neville Chamberlain's notice the very satisfactory way you have performed your duties and your high qualifications for any Staff employment that he may wish to fill either in the Department of the A. G. or G. M. G.

Believe me

Very truly yours
