Read the following paper :—

No. 137. Proceedings of the Board of Revenue, dated 5th August 1878, Miscellaneous No. 7,896.

Read the following letter from J. GROSE, Esq., Collector of Nellore, to C. A. GALTON, Esq., Acting Secretary to the Board of Revenue, dated 23rd July 1878, No. 2,994.

I HAVE the honor to report that the Shrotriendars of Somarazupalli, in the Nellore Taluk, not having paid the arrears of revenue due by them, eight Putties of ragi found in their fields were attached on the 12th March 1877, and kept for safe custody in the house of a Komati of that village. The house took fire on the 12th July 1877, and the grain was destroyed. The delay of four months on the part of the taluk officials in putting up the grain to auction was entirely due to the famine-work which pressed heavily upon them.

2. The Shrotriendars complain that their tenants possessed shares in this produce, and they had obtained Court's decree for the demand of Rs. 160 per Putti against them. These statements appear to be facts, and the price of ragi which then prevailed as fixed by the Court is Rs. 128 a Putti; at this rate the value of the 8 Puttis destroyed would be Rs. 1,024, to which the Shrotriendars are fairly entitled. I therefore beg to recommend that this amount may be taken as a set off against their arrears of Rs 1,604-14-6.

SUBMITTED for the sanction of Government.

2. The excuse for the delay in selling the attached grain must, the Board think, be admitted under the circumstances.
