No. 229. From J. STURROCK, Esq., Acting Sub-Secretary to the Board of Revenue, to C. G. MASTER, Esq., Secretary to Government, Revenue Department, dated Madras, 1st July 1878, Miscellaneous No. 6,451.

I AM directed to submit, for the approval of Government, a list showing the distribution proposed to be made of the 500 copies of the Godavery District Manual compiled by Mr. H. Morris, M.C.S., retired, the printing of which was sanctioned in Proceedings of Government, dated 20th September 1873, No. 1,020.

2. I am further to state that the Board desire to take this opportunity of expressing their high approval of the manner in which Mr. Morris has brought out the work, and recommend that orders may be passed for the grant of the usual honorarium of Rs. 1,000.

No. 230. Proceedings of the Board of Revenue, dated 31st July 1878, Miscellaneous No. 7,718.

Read the following letter from Lieutenant-Colonel A. DEC. SCOTT, R.E., Superintendent of Revenue Survey, to C. A. GALTON, Esq., Acting Secretary to the Board of Revenue, dated Madras, 20th July 1878, No. 2,503-46.

I HAVE the honor to inform you, in reply to your memorandum of the 3rd July, Miscellaneous No. 6,515, that the amount actually expended in the production of the Godavery Manual map was Rs. 329-9-7. There were, however, special causes which increased the cost in this particular case and prevent the map from being a good general example.

2. Mr. Morris, the writer of the Manual, was in England at the time the compilation of the map was undertaken and apparently had left no detailed instructions regarding it. The first drawing prepared was struck off and four copies were sent Home, but Mr. Morris objected to the scale and to the map generally. A second map was drawn, despatched, and returned by Mr. Morris with so many notes and alterations that a third drawing was requisite, and this was prepared and printed to the extent of 600 copies at a cost of Rs. 279-7-0.

3. It may, therefore, be estimated that under ordinary circumstances a map such as that referred to could be prepared and 600 copies printed at a cost of Rs. 297, which allows for two manuscript drawings, one for record and the other for correction by the Manual writer. A single copy would be sold to the public for 1 Rupee.

SUBMITTED for the information of Government with reference to official memorandum from Secretary to Government, Revenue Department, dated 28th June 1878, No. 135.

(A true Copy and Extract.)

(Signed) C. A. GALTON,
Acting Secretary.

No. 231. ORDER THEREON, 17th August 1878, No. 1,326.

Miscellaneous.

HIS GRACE the Governor in Council concurs in the opinion expressed by the Board as to the manner in which the Godavery Manual has been compiled.

2. Sanction is granted for the payment to Mr. Morris of the usual honorarium of Rs. 1,000.

3. In regard to the distribution list, the Government approve of the Board's proposals. The twenty copies assigned to Mr. Morris should be made available if he requires them. It is observed that the 200 copies entered as being "retained for sale in England" are apparently Mr. Morris' own property, the printing of them not having been included in Messrs. Trubner's bill. If this be so, the Government are of opinion that the cost price of the 200 copies of the map which the Board have sent to England for these volumes should be defrayed by Mr. Morris. From the second paper recorded above the value may be assumed to be 8 Annas per copy.

Manual of the Godavery Canal

These were enquiries of mine sent to Madras

1. What bonus does Mr Morris get for all his trouble, and does the usual honorarium of Rs 1000 include the cost of publication?

(2) Who is to sell the value of the 200 additional Copies of the manual struck off for sale in England?

(1) Mr Morris is entitled to a bonus of Rupees 1000 for his trouble. The Cost of publishing has to be paid in addition to the honorarium.

Please see the following papers.

(1) Government of India letter recorded in G.O. 7th March 1870 no 270 of D.

(2) Letter to Government of India 30th June 1870 no 439 with Lord Napier's minute.

(3) Do. do. do. 6th January 1873 no. 6. This reviews previous Correspondence.

(4) G.O 3rd March 1873 no 249. Particular attention is solicited to para 2.

(5) Letter from Govt of India d/19th May 1873 Dept of Roads no 243

(6) G.O 23rd June 1873 no 648 paragraph 1.

(7) Mr Morris is entitled to have 20 Copies gratis, as other living manualists have received them vide

Para 8 of G.O 26th April 1869 no 1112 R.D.

Para 2 of G.O 5th Nov: 1875

Note. Those officers who undertook the manual prior to Govt of India letter 8th Feb 1870 got Rs 2500 each - viz

Mr Carmichael
Mr Nelson
Mr Pilcaen
Mr Bozwell (late)

As to who should get the value of the remaining copies is a point which can not perhaps be decided without further communication with Mr Morris.

The circumstances are as follows.

In G.O 14th May 1873 no 476 Mr Morris' offer to compile the manual of the Godavery district was accepted by Government, with no especial conditions.

In G.O. 20th September 1873 no 1020 the Government observed "there is no objection to the work being printed in England under Mr Morris' superintendence provided that the whole cost and charge, including delivery of 300 Copies in Madras, do not exceed 1000 Rupees - the sanctioned amount."

In G.O 21st December 1876

no. 2118 the Government raised the limit of charges for printing, binding and carrying the same number of Copies to 150 £; Mr Morris having represented that the charges would exceed Rs 1000 owing to loss of exchange &c.

In Mr Morris' letter recorded in G.O. 23rd February 1877 no. 850 he first brought to notice that he was getting 200 more Copies printed for sale in England and that these were accordingly supplied by the Board for those 200 Copies and for 30 Copies to be delivered in the Home Offices — Vide para 3 & 4 of Board's Proc of 16th January 1877 no. 186 recorded in the above quoted G.O.

In para 3 of his letter recorded in G.O. 8th May 1876 no 1666 Mr Morris explained that he had "decided on having 200 Copies printed for publication in England solely at the request and at the advice of the publishers who stated that these additional Copies would not cost very little more than the value of the paper on which they are printed." What the extra Cost was entailed in, Mr Morris has not stated.

£141 15 8

The Bill disposed of in G.O. 30th May 1878 no 818 was only for 200 Copies. Mr Morris has evidently got the other 200 Copies printed at his own Cost. This was probably the cause of the confusion in regard to the Maps referred to in para 2 of the Board's Proceedings re-corded in the last Entry of G.O. The Board are evidently under the impression that the 200 Copies have been printed on Government Account.

It is not clear why Mr
Morris has not charged the 200 Maps for the extra Copies as he originally did in the whole paragraph 4 of his letter, recorded in G.O 27th Dec 1877
No 859, or why the Cost of paper, printing and binding these Extra Copies was not included in Messrs Trubner and Co's Bill already disposed of.

G.O 30th May 1878
No 518.

The 200 Copies which have been struck off for sale
in England are

Mr Morris's own pleasure and I don't know how to help it by giving more for that number.

Is it necessary to give the usual 20 copies to Mr Morris? The fact is none are available in England the 300 editions having been exhausted minus 30 copies delivered at the India Office.

Then as to the honorarium—I suppose the usual sum of Rs 1000 is to be granted notwithstanding that the publishing charges exceeded the usual allowance of Rs 1000?

He is entitled to the value of his drawings.

I will say that they will be made available if he requires them.
