Read the under-mentioned papers relating to the disposal of the accumulated surplus of the Customs Confiscation Funds :—

Office memorandum to the Department of Revenue, Agriculture, and Commerce, No. 1,458, dated 26th February 1878.

Office memorandum from the Department of Revenue, Agriculture, and Commerce, No. 31, dated 1st March 1878.

Letter from the Comptroller-General, No. 150, dated 25th April 1878.

RESOLUTION.—By Section 229 of Act VI of 1863 (The Consolidated Customs Act) it was enacted that the proceeds of all confiscations and penalties imposed under that Act, after deducting therefrom all Government demands, should be formed into a Fund for the payment of rewards for information, and the like. In "The Sea Customs Act, 1878," by which the Consolidated Customs Act, 1863, was repealed, no provision was made for the formation of a separate Fund of this nature, and accordingly the said separate Fund has now ceased to exist. Any balances still at credit of the Fund should therefore now be credited to the Provincial Revenues.
