GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.

REVENUE DEPARTMENT.

19th August 1878, No. 1,339.

Read the following paper:—

No. 256. From L. C. PROBYN, Esq., Accountant-General, Madras, to C. G. MASTER, Esq., Secretary to Government, Revenue Department, dated Fort St. George, 7th August 1878, No. 5,143.

With reference to the Proceedings of Government in the Revenue Department, No. 1,093, dated the 18th ultimo, I have the honor to state that the compensation of Rs. 1,120 therein referred to is a charge clearly debitable against the allotment for irrigation works. The argument advanced in the Note of the Chief Engineer for Irrigation, No. [illegible]-W, dated the 6th February 1877, in respect to the charge in question not being debitable to the Irrigation Budget is, I beg to submit, equally applicable to all other expenditure on irrigation works. All such expenditure appears to be incurred in the interests of the revenue, and of the ryots holding land benefited by the works, and it appears to me it would be no more incorrect to say that for a similar reason the cost of masonry works connected with irrigation is not a charge debitable to the Irrigation Budget.

No. 257. Order thereon, 19th August 1878, No. 1,339.

Irrigation, No. 6.

Transferred to the Public Works Department for disposal.

Sir.

With reference to the proceedings of Government in the Revenue Department No 1093 dated the 18th ultimo I have the honor to state that the Compensation of Rs 1120 therein referred to is a charge clearly debitable against the allotment for Irrigation works. The Argument advanced in the note of the Chief Engineer for Irrigation No 97 Ir dated the 6th February 1877 in respect to the charge in question not being debitable to the Irrigation Budget is likely to be met equally applicable to all other Expenditure on Irrigation works. All such Expenditure appears to be incurred in the interests of the revenue, and of the ryots holding land benefitted by the works, and it appears to me it would be no more incorrect to say that for a similar reason the Cost of masonry works connected with irrigation is not a charge debitable to the Irrigation Budget.
