Proceedings of the Board of Revenue
Dr.s &c. Nov.r 1877.

Read again Bd.s Mis: Pros.s dated 17th September 877 No. 8577 and 25th June 877 No. 919 and also the following:—

To The Secretary to the Board of Revenue
Madras.

Sir,

I beg respectfully to acknowledge the receipt of the Pros.s of the Bd. of Rev.e No. 919 dated 25th June last. I am sincerely thankful for the 2 years in completing it and in making the Calculations and the anxiety it has cost me is beyond my power to describe.

The value which the Honble Board have given to the Work will not repay the Expences, the account of which I will lay before you if required and it will leave me nothing for my own labours I earnestly beg of the Board to give me at least 1 Rupee pr Copy, but if they decline I must accept their Offer of 12 annas per Copy or the publication of the book will be my ruin.

Nellore
5th November 1877.

I have &c.
Sd. V. S. Cuppaladen

The Board request the Sanction of Govt. for the purchase of 2000 Copies of the Tables Compiled by V. S. Cuppaladen at 12 Annas a Copy for the use of Cutcherry. They are not prepared to recommend payment of a higher price. On Sanction being accorded the distribution will be settled. (True Copy & Extract)

Mis No. 919.

Proceedings of the Board of Revenue.
dated 25th June 1877.

Read the following:-

To. The Secretary to the Board of Revenue
Madras.

Sir,

With reference to the Proceedings of the Bd. of Rev: dated the 17th September 1875, No. 847/5 I most respectfully beg to send for the perusal of the Board a copy of my tables and request to be informed what number of copies they would buy for the use of Kurnums and others.

The price of the book is shewn in the enclosed notice.

If a large purchase is made a discount will be allowed as shewn hereunder.

For purchases from 50 to 100 Rs. 10 per cent.
" 100 " 500 Rs. 15 "
" 500 " 1000 " 20 "
" 1000 and upwards 25 "

Nellore
31st May 1877

I beg to remain &c
Sd V. S. Cupaladay
Nellore.

The Board consider the price of the book too high; if reduced to 12 annas they would be prepared to recommend Government to purchase 2,000 Copies.

Mis No. 8472.

Proceedings of the Board of Revenue
Dated 17th September 76

Read the following:—

To. The Secretary to the Revenue Board
Madras.

Sir.

I beg respectfully to inform you, that I intend publishing a Series of Tables, which, I have every hope, will be of great use to the Rev: and Mag Departments.

I beg to submit for your information, the Preface and directions of the Tables, so that you may form an opinion of them, and if you think them of use, I beg to solicit that you will represent the matter to Govt: with a view that I may be assisted by its kind support and encouragement.

If I receive the assurance that a certain number of copies would be taken up by Govt: it would be a very great inducement to me to publish the Tables. Begging you will pardon my intrusion

I beg to remain &c
