GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.

REVENUE DEPARTMENT.

23rd August 1878, No. 1,353.

Read the following paper :—

No. 238. From L. C. PROBYN, Esq., Accountant-General, Madras, to C. G. MASTER, Esq., Secretary to Government, Revenue Department, dated Fort St. George, 12th June 1878, No. 3,608.

With reference to the Proceedings of Government, No. 823, dated the 30th ultimo, I have the honor to state that it is not possible at this early stage of the year, when not even one month's transactions have been completely recorded, to say whether, under the head Land Revenue Establishment to which this charge is debitable, it is likely there will be any savings.

2. As, however, the deputation of Rana Row on temporary magisterial duty was apparently entirely owing to the famine, it is respectfully suggested that the question as to what allowances he should receive should be disposed of in that department, as it will be necessary to deal with the sanction which His Grace in Council may accord as with other sanction for establishments entertained in consequence of the famine.

No. 239. Order thereon, 23rd August 1878, No. 1,353.

Miscellaneous.

The Accountant-General will be informed that the question had been considered in the Revenue (Famine) Department before it was dealt with in G.C., 30th May 1878, No. 823; but as it was held to be distinct from Famine Relief, and to relate principally to a detail of departmental administration, the additional charge should, in the opinion of His Grace the Governor in Council, be debited to the ordinary head of account.

a Memo: for Orders
On letter from the Accountant General, dated 12th June 1878 No 3805, regarding deputation allowance to Rajna Nath

1. The endorsement from the famine Department transferring this paper not having been printed on the Proceedings the Accountant General was unaware that the question had been considered there.

2. That endorsement however did not show what was the fact viz. that the question was said not to be a famine one.

3. It is of course no use referring the paper back to the famine department but attention is solicited to the Accountant General's remark that "it "will be necessary to deal with the "sanction which His Grace in Council "may accord as with other sanc- "tion for establishments entertained in in consequence of the famine: or in other words it does not matter a straw in what department you pass the allowance. If it is famine aid to famine it will be charged anyhow.'

4. The Revenue Department has been called upon in several instances lately to provide for charges which were apparently in the first instance rendered necessary by famine. The trouble of reference might be saved if the Accountant General's principle is in future to be observed.
