GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.
REVENUE DEPARTMENT.

30th August 1878, No. 1,381.

Read the following paper:—

No. 346. From L. C. PROBYN, Esq., Accountant-General, Madras, to C. G. MASTER, Esq., Secretary to Government, Revenue Department, dated Fort St. George, 26th July 1878, No. 5,002.

With reference to Proceedings of the Madras Government, No. 710, dated the 8th of May last, I have the honor to point out that the Treasury Deputy Collector of Bellary has, in his No. 1,108, dated the 19th instant, brought to my notice that Mr. Firth, though appointed Temporary Deputy Collector under the orders published in the Fort St. George Gazette of the 24th of April last, did not assume charge of his duties as such, and, in fact, was put in charge of the Head Assistant Collector's Division not in addition to his own duties, but in lieu of them.

2. Section 25 of the Acting Allowance Code, under which the charge allowance, granted in the order first referred to, was given, appears to apply, as the whole Chapter of the Code in which it is included does, solely to plural appointments; and ~~the whole Chapter of the Code in which it is included does, solely to plural appointments; and~~ the issue of the Government of India was one in which charge allowance was given for the charge of a Head Assistant's Office in addition to the performance of the duties of a Special Deputy Collector.

3. In these circumstances, it appears to me that Mr. Firth was not entitled to the allowance claimed, but should merely have been treated as a Temporary Deputy Collector, appointed under G.O., of 12th January 1877, No. 105, Financial, and allowed his own pay of Rupees 250 per mensem.

No. 347. ORDER THEREON, 30th August 1878, No. 1,381.

Miscellaneous.

The ruling of the Government of India contained in their letter, No. 156, dated 14th January 1878, distinctly affirms the grant of charge allowance under Section 25 of the Acting Allowance Code to a Temporary Deputy Collector placed in charge of a Head Assistant's Office,—a detached charge.

2. There is no proviso, as suggested by the Accountant-General, that the "charge allowance" was only to be drawn when a Temporary Deputy Collector was placed in charge of the Office, in addition to his own duties, and it may be observed that the duties of a Head Assistant Collector and Magistrate form at least an adequate charge for a Deputy Collector without other duty.

3. Mr. J. G. Firth was appointed a Temporary Deputy Collector for the Bellary District on the 24th April 1878, about the time the Head Assistant Collector of the district proceeded on privilege leave; and there being no Covenanted Assistant available, the Collector placed Mr. Firth in charge of the Head Assistant Collector's Division.

4. For the additional duties and responsibilities involved in the charge, Firth is entitled to a charge allowance of Rupees 100 a-month, in addition to pay as Deputy Collector, and His Grace the Governor in Council direct accordingly.

5. Copy of these Proceedings will be remitted to the Government of India for confirmation.

Sir

With reference to proceedings of the Madras
Government N^o 490 dated the 8 of May last,
I have the honor to point out that the Treasury
Deputy Collector of Bellary has in his N^o 1108 dated the 19 instant brought to my notice that Mr Firth though appointed Temporary Deputy Collector under the order published in the Fort Saint George Gazette of the 24 of April last did not assume charge of his duties as such,
and in fact was put in charge of the Madras Assistant Collectors Division, not in addition to his own duties, but in lieu of them.

2 Section 25 of the Acting Allowance Code, under which the charge allowance, granted in the order first referred to, was given, appears to apply, as the whole Chapter of the Code in which it is included does, solely to plural appointments. And the one which led to the one of the orders of the Government of India was one in which charge allowance was given for the charge of a Head Assistant's office in addition to the performance of the duties of a Special Deputy Collector me that Mr. Firth was not entitled to the allowance claimed, but should merely
