GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.
PUBLIC DEPARTMENT.

11th January 1878, No. 62.

Mr. H. B. Grigg, M. C. S.

Read the following paper:—

No. 37. From R. H. HOLLINGBERRY, Esq., Assistant Secretary to the Government of India, Financial Department, to the Secretary to the Government of Madras, dated Fort William, 31st December 1877, No. 2858.

In reply to your letter, No. 1248, dated 20th September 1877, I am directed to say that the Governor-General in Council concurs in the decision of the Government of Madras that Section 24 (b) of the Acting Allowance Code does not bar the claim of an Under Secretary to Government in one department to extra allowance for doing the duties of another Under Secretary in a separate department. I am, however, to invite the attention of the Government of Madras to the example under Section 25 of the Acting Allowance Code, and to say, with reference thereto, that to entitle Mr. H. B. Grigg to charge allowance for performing the duties of Under Secretary in the Public Department in addition to his own duties as Under Secretary in the Revenue Department it is necessary for the Local Government to make the declaration indicated in Rule 1, Section 23, of the Code.

Copy to the Accountant-General, Madras.

No. 38. ORDER THEREON, 11th January 1878, No. 62.

Communicated to Mr. H. B. Grigg; also to the Revenue Department for information.

2. The declaration required by Section 23, Rule 1, of the Acting Allowance Code was practically made in paragraph 2 of G. O., dated 20th September 1877, No. 1247, which was forwarded to the Government of India with letter No. 1248. It will, however, be repeated here:—

The Governor in Council resolves to declare that it was necessary on public and financial grounds to entrust to Mr. H. B. Grigg, Acting Under Secretary to Government, Revenue Department, the duties of the Under Secretary to Government, Public Department, and that the salary to which he would be limited by proviso (c), Section 23, is inadequate for the performance of the additional duties.

(True Extract.)

H. B. Grigg
Chief Secretary.
