GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.
REVENUE DEPARTMENT.

21st January 1879, No. 159-A.

Famine Relief.

Read the following paper:—

No. 384-A. From W. S. WHITESIDE, Esq., Collector of North Arcot, to H. S. THOMAS, Esq., Acting Secretary to Government, Revenue Department, dated Chittur, 16th January 1879, No. 5.

I HAVE the honor to forward herewith an application in the prescribed form for a grant of Rs. 10,000 for expenditure on gratuitous relief during the current month.

2. It will be observed from the particulars given in the margin that out of a total grant of Rupees

	RS.	A.	P.

25,70,450; an outlay of Rs. 25,68,690 was incurred up to 27th December last, leaving only a balance of Rs. 1,760.

3. Since the opening of the Treasury after the Christmas holidays, cheques to the extent of Rs. 3,193 have been issued on bills submitted by Tahsildars and Deputy Tahsildars on account of settlement of accounts, and bills are also coming in daily from them for making final payments. As, moreover, the relief camp at Chittur has not as yet been completely closed owing to the concentration of all orphans of the district therein, and as Government sanctioned only 20,000 out of 30,000 Rs. applied for for last month, I request you will be so good as to move Government to accord their sanction to the balance of Rs. 10,000 as a grant to cover all the payments already made and those to be made hereafter.

TELEGRAPH MASTER

MESSAGE TO BE CONTINUED ON THE BACK, IF NECESSARY.

* If not marked State will be classed as Private and no alteration can afterwards be made.

1.-The accuracy of messages is not guaranteed, and the sender and receiver must see that all telegrams are correctly struck at 2 days.
 III.-All telegrams, except those of the 1st class, will be closed to the public between the hours of 8 A. M. and 4 P. M. (local time) on Sunday, Christmas Day, New Year's Day, Good Friday, and the Queen's Birthday.
 V.-Senders of messages are advised to write their messages in an unambiguous and distinct hand, and to use the shortest and most familiar words they can select.
 XX.-No charge is made for the transmission of the address. (Names of stations from which the message is to be despatched need not be written or designations of sender and addressee, and the latter's address.)
 XXI.-The following are the rates of charge for a message in ordinary language:-
 a. Between any two stations in India, or between any two stations in British Burmah, one Rupee for every six words or less.
 b. Between any station in India and any station in British Burmah, or between any station in India and any station in Ceylon, one Rupee eight annas for every six words or less.
 c. Between any station in Ceylon and any station in British Burmah, two Rupees for every six words or less.
 XXII.-A double charge is levied on all messages forwarded for transmission between the hours of 8 P. M. and 4 A. M. (local time), also on Sundays and the following holidays:- Christmas Day, New Year's Day, Good Friday, and the Queen's Birthday.
 XXIII.-The charge for a message in cipher, is double the charge for a message in ordinary language.
 XXIV.-A message can be sent from any station of the Government Telegraph Department to any Railway Telegraph Station, or vice versa, without additional charge.
 XXV.-The day, hour, and minute of receipt of a message into a Telegraph Office for despatch are added by the operators and telegraphed free of charge.
 XXVI.-Messages can be collected or reported back from Station to Station to ensure correctness.
 XXVII.-The charge for collection is equal to half the charge for the message. A collected message is indicated by the word "collected," which, to ensure the greatest accuracy is telegraphed (free) both in the official instructions and as the first word of the text of the message.
 XXVIII.-The sender of a message can prepay an advice of delivery. In this case the terminal station immediately after the delivery of the message, despatches a telegram to the sender announcing the exact time at which it reached its destination.
 XXIX.-The charge for an advice of delivery is that for a single message in ordinary or day rate.
 XXX.-The charge for a message can prepay a reply not exceeding ten times the cost of the original telegram. He must add the words "reply paid" or "answer paid." These must form concluding words of the message, but will not be charged for. On depositing the corresponding sum the sender can add free to the words "reply paid" or "answer paid" the amount to which he wishes the reply to be limited.
 XXXI.-Messages will be delivered free of charge at any place within five miles of a Telegraph Station. Beyond these distances, messages will be sent by Post or by such other means as the sender may arrange and pay for.
 XXXII.-No refund will be made for a message delivered wholly or partially in an intelligible state unless the extra charge for collection (see Rule XXVII) has been paid on it. Applications for refunds, as also all complaints respecting messages, should be addressed to the TELEGRAPH CHIEF OFFICE, CALCUTTA. Refunds should be made, under penalty of forfeiture within two months from the date of the message.
