From

To

The Secretary to Government
Revenue Department

SIR,

The Superintendent Madras Survey lately brought to notice of Government that it was desirable to remove the Head Quarters of No. III Survey Party from Palamanair, North Arcot District, for reasons assigned in his letter of 3^d July 1878 No. 2288.

2. Bangalore was proposed as a suitable Station: but was rejected by Government in G.O. No. 1104 of 19th July 1878, on the grounds that the Head Quarters of a Survey Party ought to be within the tract of country under Survey and that Bangalore is not in Madras Territory.

3. As the only alternative to Bangalore, endeavours have been made during the last 2 months to secure suitable accommodation at Bellary, but without success. There are no quarters available for the Officer in charge, and the only only place that would accommodate the Office Establishment is a dilapidated building, of very dubious title; the ostensible owner of which has hitherto evaded all attempts to bring him to terms.

4. There is already a large Survey Establishment (N^o. II Party) in Bellary; and I doubt whether it is advisable to introduce some 500 more persons, (including families) connected with the Department, into the same town.

5. Under these circumstances; and the sickness at Palamanair having somewhat abated; I think N^o. III Party may remain undisturbed till Christmas.

6. In the meantime, however, I would respectfully submit the subject for re-consideration of Government.

7. Bangalore is centrally situated for access to the tracts under survey by N^o. III Party; and in fact both Palamanair and Bellary are less convenient in this respect. Accommodation can be had at Bangalore and the climate is healthy.

8. The fact that Bangalore is not in Madras Territory would in no way affect for which purposes both the Bombay and Bengal Surveys annually spend their recess there.

9. Requesting the favour of early instructions.
