In their Proceedings, dated 4th July 1876, No. 1,705, the Board called for a statement of payments made in 1875-76 under the Land Improvement Act and the amount required for the same purpose in 1876-77. The letters above recorded are in reply.

2. The statements were called for with the object of determining the amount of advances required for 1876-77, but it having been since decided that no advances should be made under the Act, except for famine purposes and from Famine Funds, and the year 1876-77 having expired, no further action is called for.
