Sir

I have the honor to inform you that it is now 22 months since the Palghaut Tahsildar's office was removed from the buildings in the Palghaut Fort in order to make room for the Convicts. He has since occupied a very inconvenient building in the bazaar and the Head Assistant Collector writes to say that it is absolutely necessary some better arrangement should be made for his accommodation. I agree with that officer and would suggest that if the Fort is to be permanently occupied as a jail, a new office should be built for the

Should we not call Government's attention to report Bt. Capt. ... & others who consider the Fort ... I think that the place is suited for a jail — in permanence — but possibly too near Coimbatore
