Note.

This draft resolution states correctly the effect of the various orders relating to the reorganization of the Rev: Survey Dept: as understood in this Department.

That portion of para 3 which relates to the furlough allowances of military officers, or to a military officer acting as Superintendent having the Department on deputation elsewhere does not seem to have hitherto been under reference by us or to have been in any way decided in our papers.

Earlier in para 3 Major Clay's pay should be given as 1065-11-6 instead of Rs 1200, and instead of the 27th October 1876 the date should apparently be the 21st October 1876 being the date on which Col Massy submitted his revised scheme vide G.O. 27th February 1877 No 842 and para 2 Govt of India Letter in G.O. 25th June 1877 No 2097.

P.S. The last part of para 2 would seem

Well the Secy to Govt in the Revenue Dept notes whether these orders are correct. Some confusion has crept into previous orders and the Account Dept is puzzled. It is believed here that these orders as now drafted state truly the effect of the orders heretofore passed and that it is better to simplify matters by making no further reference to the somewhat complicated process by which these results were obtained.
