Letter from Government of India, 31st October 1877, No. 656.

SIR,—Adverting to the correspondence noted in the margin, in which sanction was sought and accorded to the allowances of Colonel A. deC. Scott, R.E., while officiating as Superintendent, Madras Revenue Survey, being exceptionally regulated, I am directed to request that in the event of this officer being confirmed in that appointment he may be permitted to draw pay at the higher rate of Rupees 1,800, which has now been for some time allowed to him as substantive pro tem.

The appointment has become vacant owing to the retirement of Colonel Hessey.

2. I am further to state that though His Grace the Governor in Council does not desire that the 1,500 Rupees limit should be relaxed in favor of any of the Military Officers at present in the Department who entered it after the 31st October 1872, he would be glad of the assurance that it will not be rigidly enforced in the case of any officer of peculiar qualifications whom it may be deemed necessary to introduce hereafter.

I have the honor to be,
