Leave Rules.

Read the following paper:—

No. 84. From Major A. de C. SCOTT, R.E., Acting Superintendent, Revenue Survey, to the Secretary to Government, Revenue Department, dated Bangalore, 12th August 1877, No. 2458—109.

I have the honor to forward for the favorable consideration of Government a Memorial from Mr. A. Maltby, Assistant Superintendent, Revenue Survey.

ENCLOSURE No. 1.

To

THE RIGHT HONORABLE THE SECRETARY OF STATE FOR INDIA.

The humble Memorial of the undersigned Officer of the Madras Revenue Survey.

HUMBLY SHOWETH,—That under the terms of the despatch from the Secretary of State for India to the Governor-General in Council, dated 10th February 1876, regarding Leave Rules to the Uncovenanted Civil Service, I am excluded from the more favorable rules owing to my salary being less than Rupees 6,000 per annum on the date of the despatch.

2. That I am drawn from precisely the same class as those admitted to the more favorable rules and that the climate has consequently the same effect upon me.

3. That I was gazetted upon the same terms and shall in due time hold the same appointment as my seniors in the department who have been admitted to the more favorable rules.

4. That I have never held any subordinate appointment under Government or indeed any other than the one I now hold.

5. That all gazetted appointments in the Madras Revenue Survey are held either by Military officers or English gentlemen, and that natives are not admitted to those appointments.

6. That the Officers of the Bombay and Mysore Revenue Surveys holding the same kind of appointments have been already admitted to the rules in question.

7. That the arduous nature of the duties in the field and the exposure we undergo render a frequent change of climate even more necessary for us than for almost any other branch of the public service.

8. That I therefore humbly pray that I may be permitted to benefit by the more favorable rules now conceded to the other officers in the department.

BELLARY,
3rd August 1877.

Second Asst. Supt., No. 2, Rev. Survey.
