I must say that the Govt. has not yet decided on the transfer of Mr. Gaps to Madras. It is possible that he may be sent to Khar. nool

not transferred. I am not sure of this.
I will leave the question to

I don't understand clearly what H. G.'s intention in proposing to send
Mr. Gass & Madras
himself personally
is. But the draft is in accordance with H. G.'s note.

I don't think in the present position of the Dept. Staff we can afford to have 2 Officers of the standing & quality of Messrs. Bonifant & Gass in the District.
I don't think that we can properly subordinate Mr.
Gass & Mr. Bonifant
I don't think it is to our

category as Mass. & Argus Linn & Clippell.

But I am tempted to that Mr. J. J. J. take change of the Madison St. - He gains nothing
premising by so doing.
