of this juniors are to get acting allowances as before the alteration took place. I have always been opposed to this - it is a comparatively recent innovation & I don't think it is fair on the State. Nor is it necessary to the allowance. Deputy Collectors cannot by law be appointed to act for Covenanted officers therefore their case is exceptional & unless allowed a charge allowance nothing can be granted to them.

But the Chapter of the Code in which S25 occurs is headed "General appointments" & the whole tenor of the exceptions to the section itself points to the belief that it only applies to officers holding two appointments.

In the present case the officers employed can either be appointed

In this case they would draw the adm allowances retrospectively & this apparently is the course that Govt had in view to regard to them. (vide Remarks of Col Seatle D.O. marked A)
