Krishnagiri, having been granted a weeks casual leave to go to Madras, Narayana-swami Naidu was placed in charge of the said Dispensary from the 27th ulto by the Sub Collector and Vice-President Local Fund Board, Orscor, as no other arrangement was feasible. Again, the state of things at the Dharampuri Relief Camp necessitated the transfer of Surgeon Sutton and Syama Yadu Goch, Bengal Assistant Surgeon to Krishnagiri and Dharampuri Camps vice versa, the Sub Collector directed the latter (Syama Yadu Goch) to proceed forthwith to Dharampuri handing over Medical charge of the Krishnagiri Relief Camp to Narayanaswami Naidu who was instructed to retain charge of the Camp until relieved by Mr Sutton from from Dharampuri, which was not until the 16 ultimo. Thus it will be seen that Narayanaswamy Naidu's stay at Krishnagiri for 21 days from the 27th ulto on Special duty was unavoidable and that he is therefore entitled to batta for the whole period of his halt at the said station which is 11 days in excess of the period allowed. G.O. No 1129 of 20 July last, requires a special application to Government in each case in which an excess halt is necessitated.
