To
The Secretary to Government
Revenue Department

Sir

Since we had the honor to address you on the 3^d July we have after much trouble ascertained what remissions have been granted to others and have so far learnt that putting aside the special allowances made to Tanjore, Coimbatore and Salem the following remissions were given

Bellary	Rs 90,000
North Arcot	44,700
Chingleput	20,000
Cuddapah	70,000
Kurnool	large remissions but figures not ascertained

These remissions were granted wholly owing to the unfavorable Season and the question of a prior profit having been made was never introduced.

We are so satisfied that our information is accurate that we beg you will call for the Board's Proceedings granting these remissions.

We learn even further that great extensions of time have been granted for Contractors to pay up the proportion of Khist unremitted and still due, and that some never even deposited the original sum required - We merely ask for equitable treatment.
We ask for no favor which has not been universally granted: and you will find that we are the only excise Reuters whose application for consideration has been refused.
