GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.

REVENUE DEPARTMENT.

16th February 1878, No. 241.

Read the following paper :—

No. 172. Proceedings of the Board of Revenue, dated 4th February 1878, No. 301.

Read the following letter from W. R. ROBERTSON, Esq., M.R.A.C., Superintendent of Government Farms, to H. E. STOKES, Esq., Secretary to the Board of Revenue, dated Sydapet, 19th January 1878, No. 60 :—

I HAVE the honor to submit a letter (with my reply) from Dr. Keess announcing his intention to resume the Zoological lectures on Wednesday next, and requesting that he may be relieved of the charge of the Zoological training of the students at the end of March next when the winter session ends.

2. As the Zoological studies of the present class of students ends with the expiration of the present session, it is unnecessary to make any new arrangements for teaching Zoology until matters have been finally decided regarding the admission of fresh classes of students.

ENCLOSURE No. 1.

From Surgeon-Major J. KEESS, M.D., Professor of Anatomy, Madras Medical College, to W. R. ROBERTSON, Esq., M.R.A.C., Principal of the Agricultural College, dated Madras, 17th January 1878.

In compliance with the orders of the Revenue Board, I have the honor to state that I shall resume the lectures on Zoology and continue the course until the end of the winter session. My next lecture will be delivered as usual on Wednesday evening next, the 23rd instant.

2. In the meantime, I beg to request the favor of arrangements being made to supply my place during the ensuing summer session. Mr. Karney, one of the Assistants of the Medical College, is both willing and able to take up my work at the Agricultural College whenever the Revenue Board may be pleased to relieve me.

(True Copy.)

(Signed) W. R. ROBERTSON,
Superintendent, Government Farms.

ENCLOSURE No. 2.

From W. R. ROBERTSON, Esq., M.R.A.C., Superintendent of Government Farms, to Surgeon-Major J. KEESS, M.D., Lecturer on Zoology, Agricultural College, dated Sydapet, 19th January 1878, No. 62.

With reference to your letter of the 17th, I have the honor to inform you that arrangements have been made for your lectures to be resumed on Wednesday next as usual. The Zoological examination will be held on Saturday as was originally fixed. The request contained in paragraph 2 of your letter has been communicated to the Board of Revenue.

2. As the Zoological studies of the present class of students terminate (under the original arrangements) at the close of the present session, I shall feel much obliged if you will, during the short time that remains of the session, afford the students as much information as possible regarding the common insects (that have not yet come under notice) that are of interest to the farmer in Southern India.

(True Copy.)

(Signed) W. R. ROBERTSON,
Superintendent, Government Farms.

The Government having disallowed the Board's recommendation that Dr. Keess should resume his lectures, the letter read above will be submitted for such orders as they may think fit to pass upon it.
