To

The Secretary to the Board of Revenue
Madras.

Sir

I regret to have to announce the death from fever of an aggravated type on 26th ultimo of V. Pedda Chetty, Tahsildar of Pennakondah.

2. I have directed Triambaka Row, Ag. Tahsildar of Gooty, to take up the appointment of Tahsildar of Pennakondah, pending the orders of Government, and I would recommend that he be appointed permanently.

3. I have further directed B. Hanumantha Row, Seristadar of Tadpatri, and lately acting Tahsildar of Hur, to act as Tahsildar of Gooty until the orders of Government are received.

4. The Service Register books of these officers are enclosed.
Triambaka

5. Triembaka Row has done excellent Service in the Famine, and has gained the approbation of all the officers with whom he has come in contact. The permanent incumbent will probably shortly revert to the appointment in which he is now acting. His claims to promotion are, in my opinion, superior to those of other applicants.

6. The appointment of Hammantha Row to act at Gooty, until relieved by the permanent incumbent will cause less inconvenience than any other arrangement which I can at present make. He has acquitted himself fairly, I understand, during his tenure of office at Aliv. I would propose that he be appointed to act substantive protem, the full pay of the appointment being available.
