No 300

From

W. S. Whiteside Esqre

Collector of N. Arcot

To C. A. Galton Esqre

Secretary to the Board of Revenue

Madras

Sir

In the order of Government of 21st June last No 1525 passed on the reports of the Accountant

P. Sitarasami Gounder
ta in Gudrattam Taluk.

C. Gurusami Esq
Shroff in Madras Taluk.

C. Vignasagaram Pillai Asst. Inspector of Gudrattam Taluk.

P. Sreenivasulu
Asst. Inspector of Karayanam Division.

General dated 11 and 14 I dem has 3485 and 3734 I am directed to report through the Board of Revenue the circumstances under which the individuals named in the margin were entertained in the Public Service as they are each of them above 25 years of age

The

2 The first named individual P. Subramana was at first appointed to act as attender of the Gudrattam Taluq in March 1874 and was since promoted to act as Gumsasta in the same Taluq in September last by the then additional Sub Collector Mr. Bliss, as he was doing good work & deserved promotion.

3 C. Gurusami Iyer Head Shroff in the Wallajah Taluq Kacheri was the officiating Head Assistant Collector reports, only 24 years 3 months and 3 days old when he was entertained in the Public Service as Deputy Shroff on the 22 April 1874 and was promoted as Head Shroff on the 1st April 1878.

4 The Order quoted by the Accountant General runs thus: "No person should be admitted to the Unconvenanted Civil Service of Government after he

he has attained the age of 25 years" But as stated above Gurusami Iyer got the appointment of Deputy Shroff before he was 25 years and his present appointment is a subsequent promotion. Both the permanent and acting Tahsildars of Wallajah report well of his intelligence ability and experience.

5 C. Vezarajava Charri was appointed by Mr. Bliss while additional Sub Collector of this District in November last to act as 1st Class Revenue Inspector of the Gudrattam Taluq as no other hands were then available and he has been since reduced to 5th class in the ^{sub} collector's office. I would therefore beg to recommend that his services be retained.

6. As regards P. Srinivasulu Naidu in the last of the individuals referred to by the Accountant General the Officiating Head Assistant Collector reports reports that there is no person of that name employed as Revenue Inspector or holding any other Govt appointment in the Narayanammam Division.
